

August 12, 2004

To: Community Council Members

From: Anne Byers

Subject: Revisions to the Community IT Planning Workbook

This year, I've made a few revisions to the Community IT Planning Workbook. Changes include:

- Adding a short section on five technology trends for communities.
- Updating the statistics for the benchmark data.
- Emphasizing the importance of recognizing that economic development is the primary driver behind community technology development, by expanding the community leadership and economic development sections.